Please note: only members of an accredited news media organization or "working" media, such as reporters, editors and photographers, are eligible to receive press credentials. You may be asked to submit a sample of your work for review, such as a copy of an article published in your name or Web links to articles published in your name or company. Submission of this registration application DOES NOT indicate you have been approved for press credentials. If approved, you will receive an e-mail confirmation from the NADA convention's registration and housing bureau, Experient, with instructions to pick up your media badge at the Moscone Center in San Francisco. If you do not fall into the "press" category, but would still like to attend the NADA convention, visit our convention site at www.nadaconventionandexpo.org to register as an allied industry representative.*

If you have any questions, contact Laura Withers, NADA public relations specialist, at lawithers@nada.org or (703) 760-7578.
